

Living in Little River Watershed

A workshop to learn about Landscaping, Timber and other topics

What: A workshop to hear about Little River Canyon from the National Park Service, Wildland Urban Interface from the Alabama Forestry Commission, Sustainable Development from Coosa River Basin Initiative and Alabama Smart Yards.

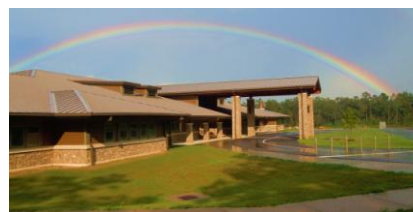

- ❖ Participants will receive workshop materials
- ❖ Refreshments provided by the Friends of the Preserve

Date: Saturday, April 16, 2011

Time: 8:30 a.m. to Noon

Where: Little River Canyon Center
4322 Little River Trail Suite 100
Fort Payne, AL 35967

Fee: This is a free workshop for the public but reservations are required.

Please call (256) 845-9605 or email Mary_Shew@nps.gov to reserve your seat or send in the registration form below by April 14th.

Presented by Little River Canyon National Preserve

In Cooperation with

Alabama Forestry Commission

Coosa River Basin Initiative

JSU Canyon Center

Top of Alabama Regional Council of Governments (TARCOG)

The Friends of the Preserve

REGISTRATION FORM

Name: _____
Address: _____
Work Phone: _____
Cell Phone: _____
Email: _____

Mail registration form to:

Little River Canyon National Preserve
Attention: Mary Shew
4322 Little River Trail, Suite 100
Fort Payne, AL 35967